

2

Have you met?

VOCABULARY:	Where do you go shopping?	31
LISTENING:	Identifying syllable stress	35
READING:	Scanning an Internet ad	36
WRITING:	Filling out an e-form	37
GRAMMAR:	Using an adjective + to -infinitive.	38
LISTENING:	Choosing the topic and main idea	43
VOCABULARY:	Making polite introductions	44
GRAMMAR:	Using a verb + gerund	48
WRITING:	Combining sentences to form a paragraph	52
	Writing a paragraph	53
GRAMMAR:	Using prepositions of location	54
WRITING:	Outlining information contained in a paragraph	57
PERFORMANCE CHECK:	Using a to -infinitive or gerund	60

NEW VOCABULARYNouns

adult cafeteria
clothing store department store discount store elevator escalator floor introduction mall neighbor neighborhood parking lot rule shop
shopping center
stairs supermarket
supper variety

Verbs

decide (to) introduce let → let mind receive shake → shook shop
write → wrote down

Other words afraid (of) alone down downstairs everybody everyone go shopping

polite politely up upstairs

NEW GRAMMAR STRUCTURES

We're ready to go.

She enjoys singing.

The parking lot is next to the building.

LANGUAGE FUNCTION

Greet and introduce people.

Have you met Lt Grant?

Let me introduce you to Lt Grant.

I'd like you to meet Lt Grant.

How do you do?

It's a pleasure to meet you.

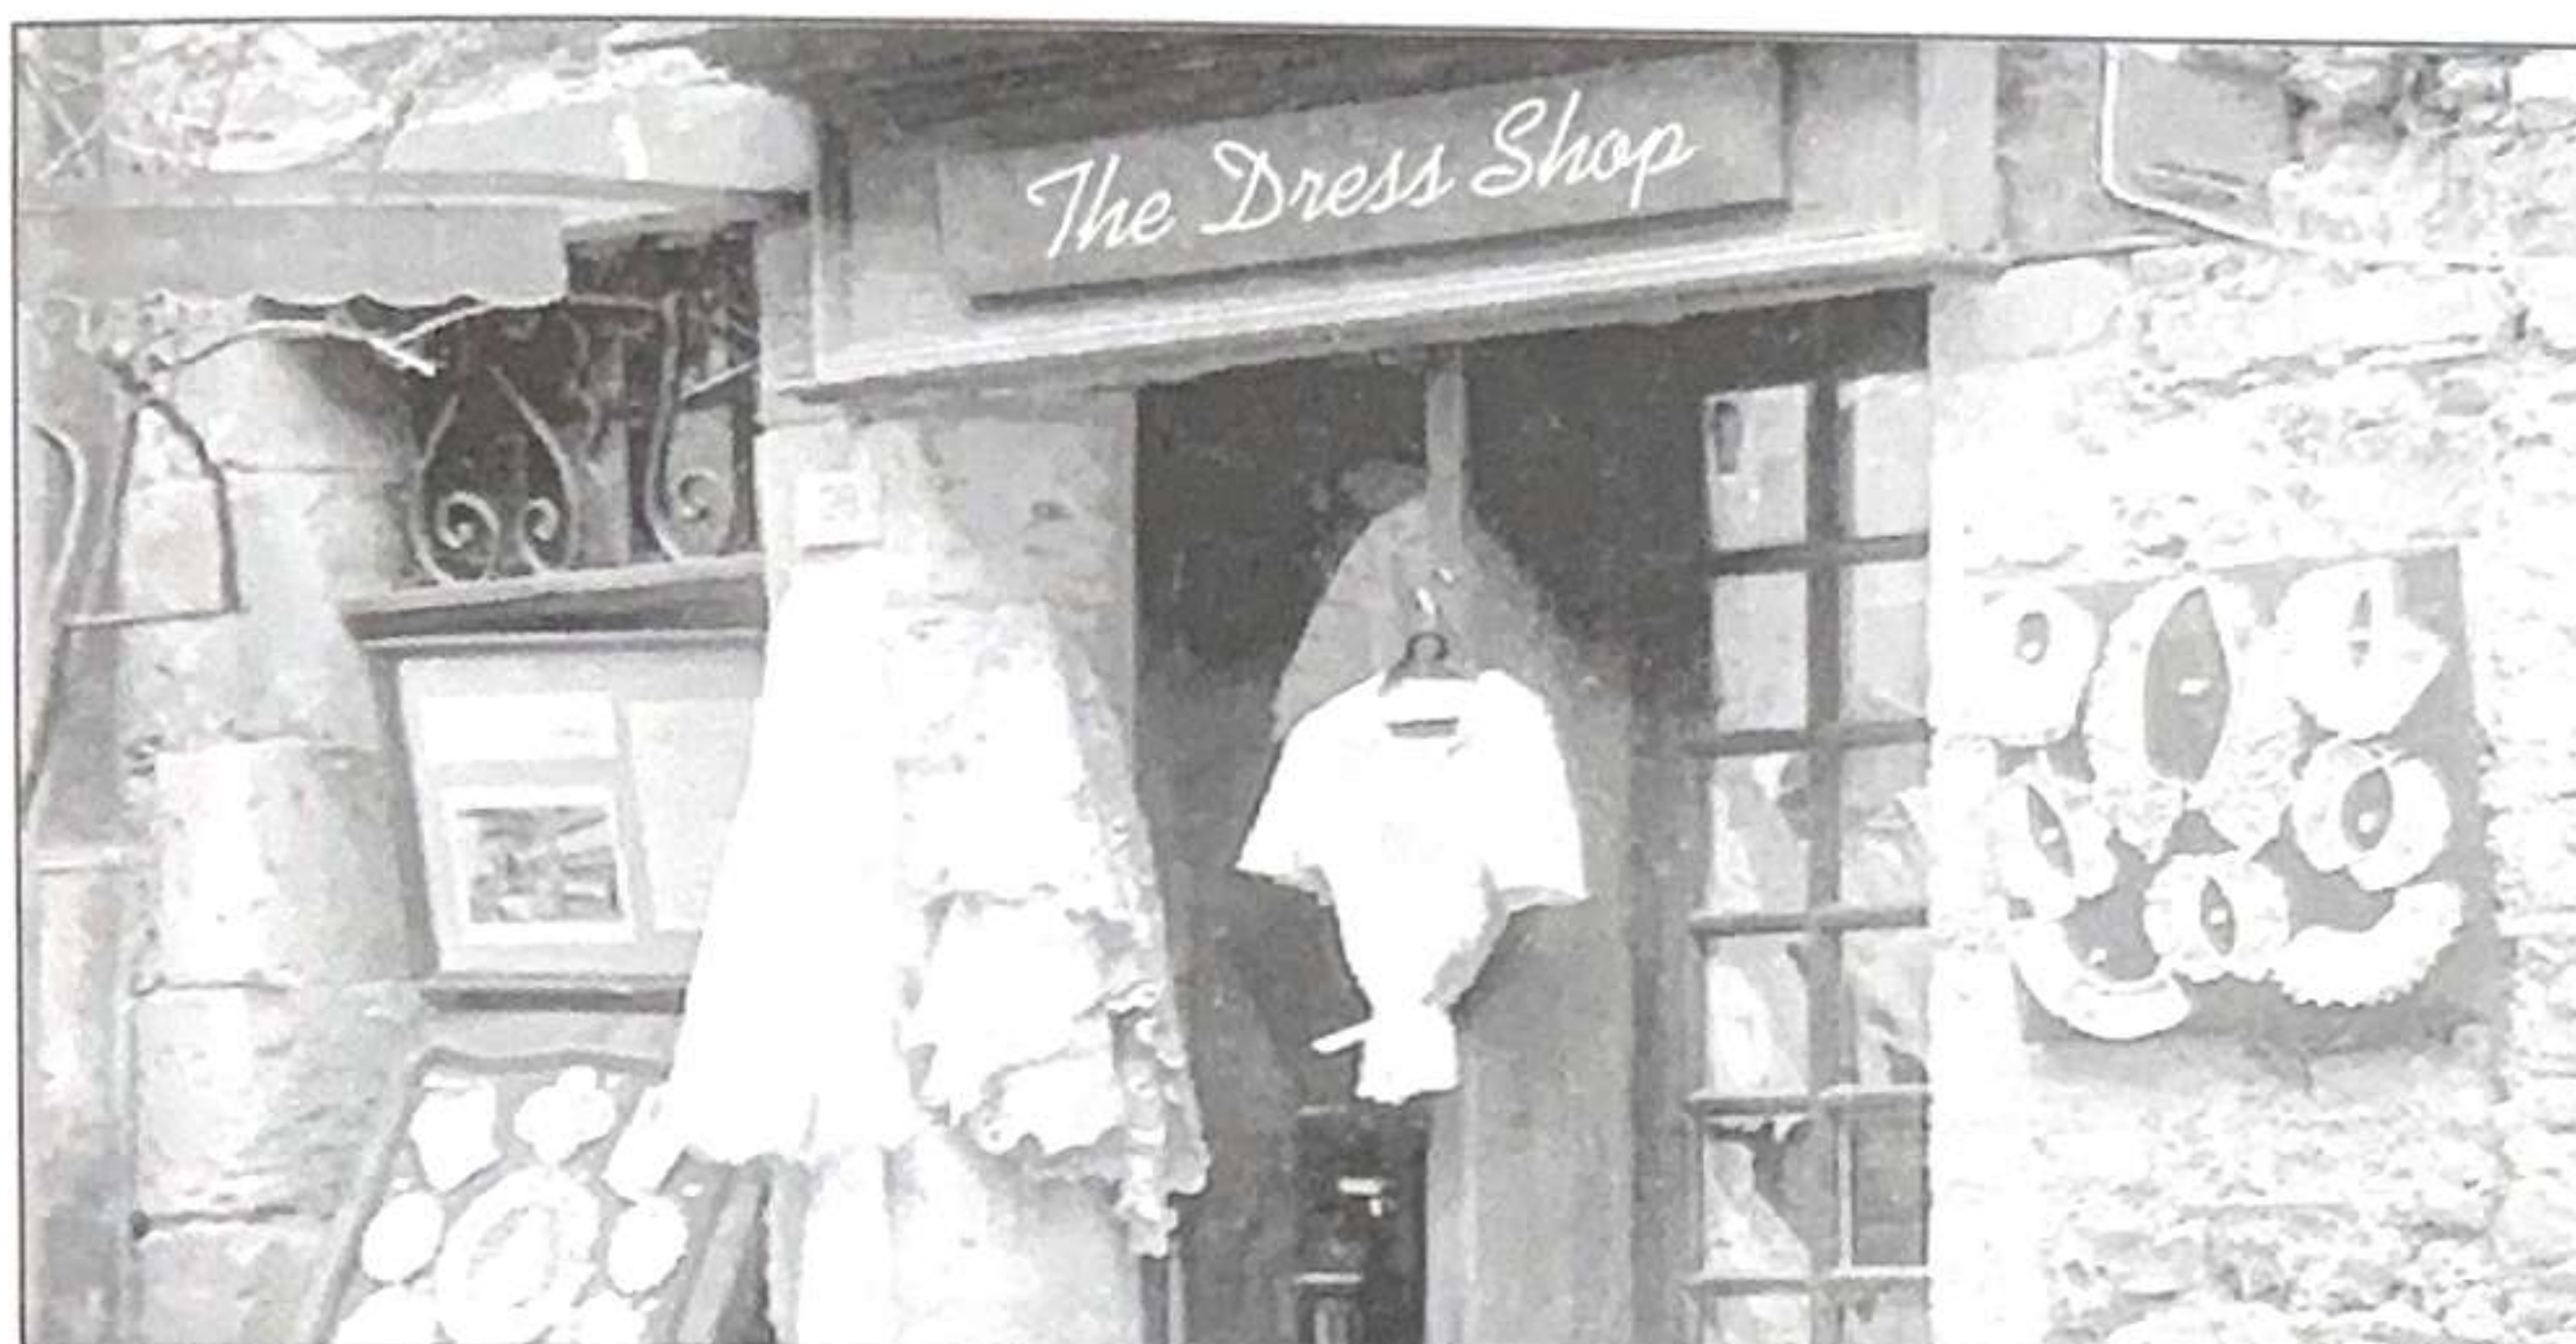

It's nice/good to meet you.

Good to know you.

Vocabulary

Where do you go shopping?

MAGAZINE ADVERTISING

Where do you
go shopping?

Town Square
Shopping Center

Town Square has your favorite stores and shops. Everything you're looking for is in one place. We're easy to get to, and our big parking lot makes parking easy, too.

You can do more than just shop here. Do your banking, have lunch or supper, and shop from 9:00 to 9:00 any day of the week.

Decide to visit Town Square today.

SOUTH ST★R MALL

Let it rain!

Rain won't be a problem at South Star Mall, where you'll be doing all your shopping inside. ★ We've got everything under one roof. ★ Visit two floors with the very best shops in town. ★ Don't get tired walking up and down stairs. ★ Ride our escalators and elevators upstairs or downstairs. ★ Save your steps for shopping. ★ Come shop till you drop.

EXERCISE A Read the store ads.

Town Square Shopping Center

Clark's Department Store

Clark's ... we've got everything for the home and family. You'll find all you need here.

24 / 7 Supermarket

We're open 24/7. Shop here for the best variety of fruits and vegetables in town.

$ilver Dollar Discount Store

Why pay more? Everything costs a dollar. Nothing more, nothing less. We save you money.

Long & Tall

Over 6' tall? More than 180 lb? We're the men's clothing store for you.

Short Cuts

We cut it like you want it. Not too short and not too long. Haircuts for adults and children.

WESTERN BANK

Your friendly neighborhood bank. Come to us for all your banking needs. We're here for you.

Town Square Cafeteria

Good, healthy, home-made food. Stop in for breakfast, lunch, supper, or one of our delicious desserts.

My Photo Sh*p

We sell cameras, film, and more. Learn how to take great pictures in our weekly photo classes.

Arnold's Gym

Need to lose a few pounds? Want to get stronger? We'll help you do both.

EXERCISE B Answer the questions with information from the store ads.

- Where can you go to eat lunch?
- Which store sells groceries?
- Where can you buy film?
- Which store has cheap prices?
- Which place cuts hair for adults?
- Which store sells things for the home?
- Where can you save money?
- What kind of store is Long & Tall?
- Who sells soap and detergent?
- Where can you get women's shoes?

EXERCISE C Match the picture with the place where you can buy it.

What else can you buy there? Write two more items next to each place's name.
Number 1 is an example.

- | | | |
|---------------|---------------------|---|
|  e  | 1. discount store |  paper and notebook  |
|   | 2. supermarket |   |
|   | 3. clothing store |   |
|   | 4. photo shop |   |
|   | 5. department store |   |
|   | 6. cafeteria |   |

EXERCISE D Write the words for the pictures and definitions.

1. evening meal
2. place to park cars
3. to buy things
4. lots of choices
5. to make a choice
6. place with stores

7.
8.

EXERCISE E Look at the department store directory, and give directions.

Work with a partner. Each of you has a shopping list. Ask for and give directions to the floors where you can find the things on the lists. Start on the first floor.

DIRECTORY
BASEMENT
Furniture
Appliances
1st FLOOR
Women's clothes
Shoes, belts, wallets
2nd FLOOR
Men's clothes
Children's clothes
3rd FLOOR
Bed and bath
Kitchen
4th FLOOR
Sports and cameras
Cafeteria
Escalators, elevators, and stairs go to all floors.

I'm on the first floor.
Where do I go for towels?

Take the escalator
up to the third floor.

STUDENT 1

1. sheets
2. girl's dress
3. man's raincoat
4. coffee and cake
5. bookcase
6. woman's skirt
7. tennis balls
8. television
9. winter boots
10. dishes

STUDENT 2

1. film
2. blouse
3. armchair
4. belt
5. knives
6. lamp
7. necktie
8. blanket
9. lunch
10. boy's jacket

EXERCISE F Fill in the blanks with words in the box.

up upstairs floor stairs down downstairs mall escalator

My favorite shopping _____ has three floors. Most people like to take the _____ from one _____ to the next, but you can also walk _____ or _____ the _____. Sometimes I go _____ with the escalator, and then go back _____ on foot.

Listening

Identifying syllable stress

How do you say the word favorite?

▲ ● ●
fa vor ite

❖ Say the stressed syllable louder, stronger, and hold it longer.

EXERCISE A Listen to the word. Circle the number of the stressed syllable.

1. 1 2 3 4

2. 1 2 3 4

3. 1 2 3 4

4. 1 2 3 4

5. 1 2 3 4

6. 1 2 3 4

7. 1 2 3 4

8. 1 2 3 4

9. 1 2 3 4

10. 1 2 3 4

EXERCISE B Write the words in the columns with the correct stress pattern.

another remember operate carefully opinion afternoon expensive opening anyone understand

▲ ● ●	● ▲ ●	● ● ▲

KEY

▲ stressed syllable
● unstressed syllable

Reading

Scanning an Internet ad

Read the questions first. Then, scan the Internet ad. Finally, circle the correct answer.

1. How much can you save today with your credit card?
 - a. $20
 - b. $30
 - c. $35
2. What can you order from Dogears.store?
 - a. books
 - b. dogs
 - c. food
3. What can you save on now at MenOnly.store?
 - a. computers
 - b. watches
 - c. winter clothes
4. How can you get weekly shopping information from OnLineMall.store?
 - a. Call them on the phone today.
 - b. Send them your e-mail address.
 - c. Ask your friends for the address.
5. When can you call OnLineMall with questions or about problems?
 - a. Saturday and Sunday
 - b. Monday through Friday
 - c. Monday through Saturday

Writing

Filling out an e-form

You ordered some clothes from OnLineMall.store last week. They arrived today, but they are the wrong size and color. Write OnLineMall.store about the problem.

First Name:

Last Name:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

Phone Daytime:

Phone Evening:

E-mail:

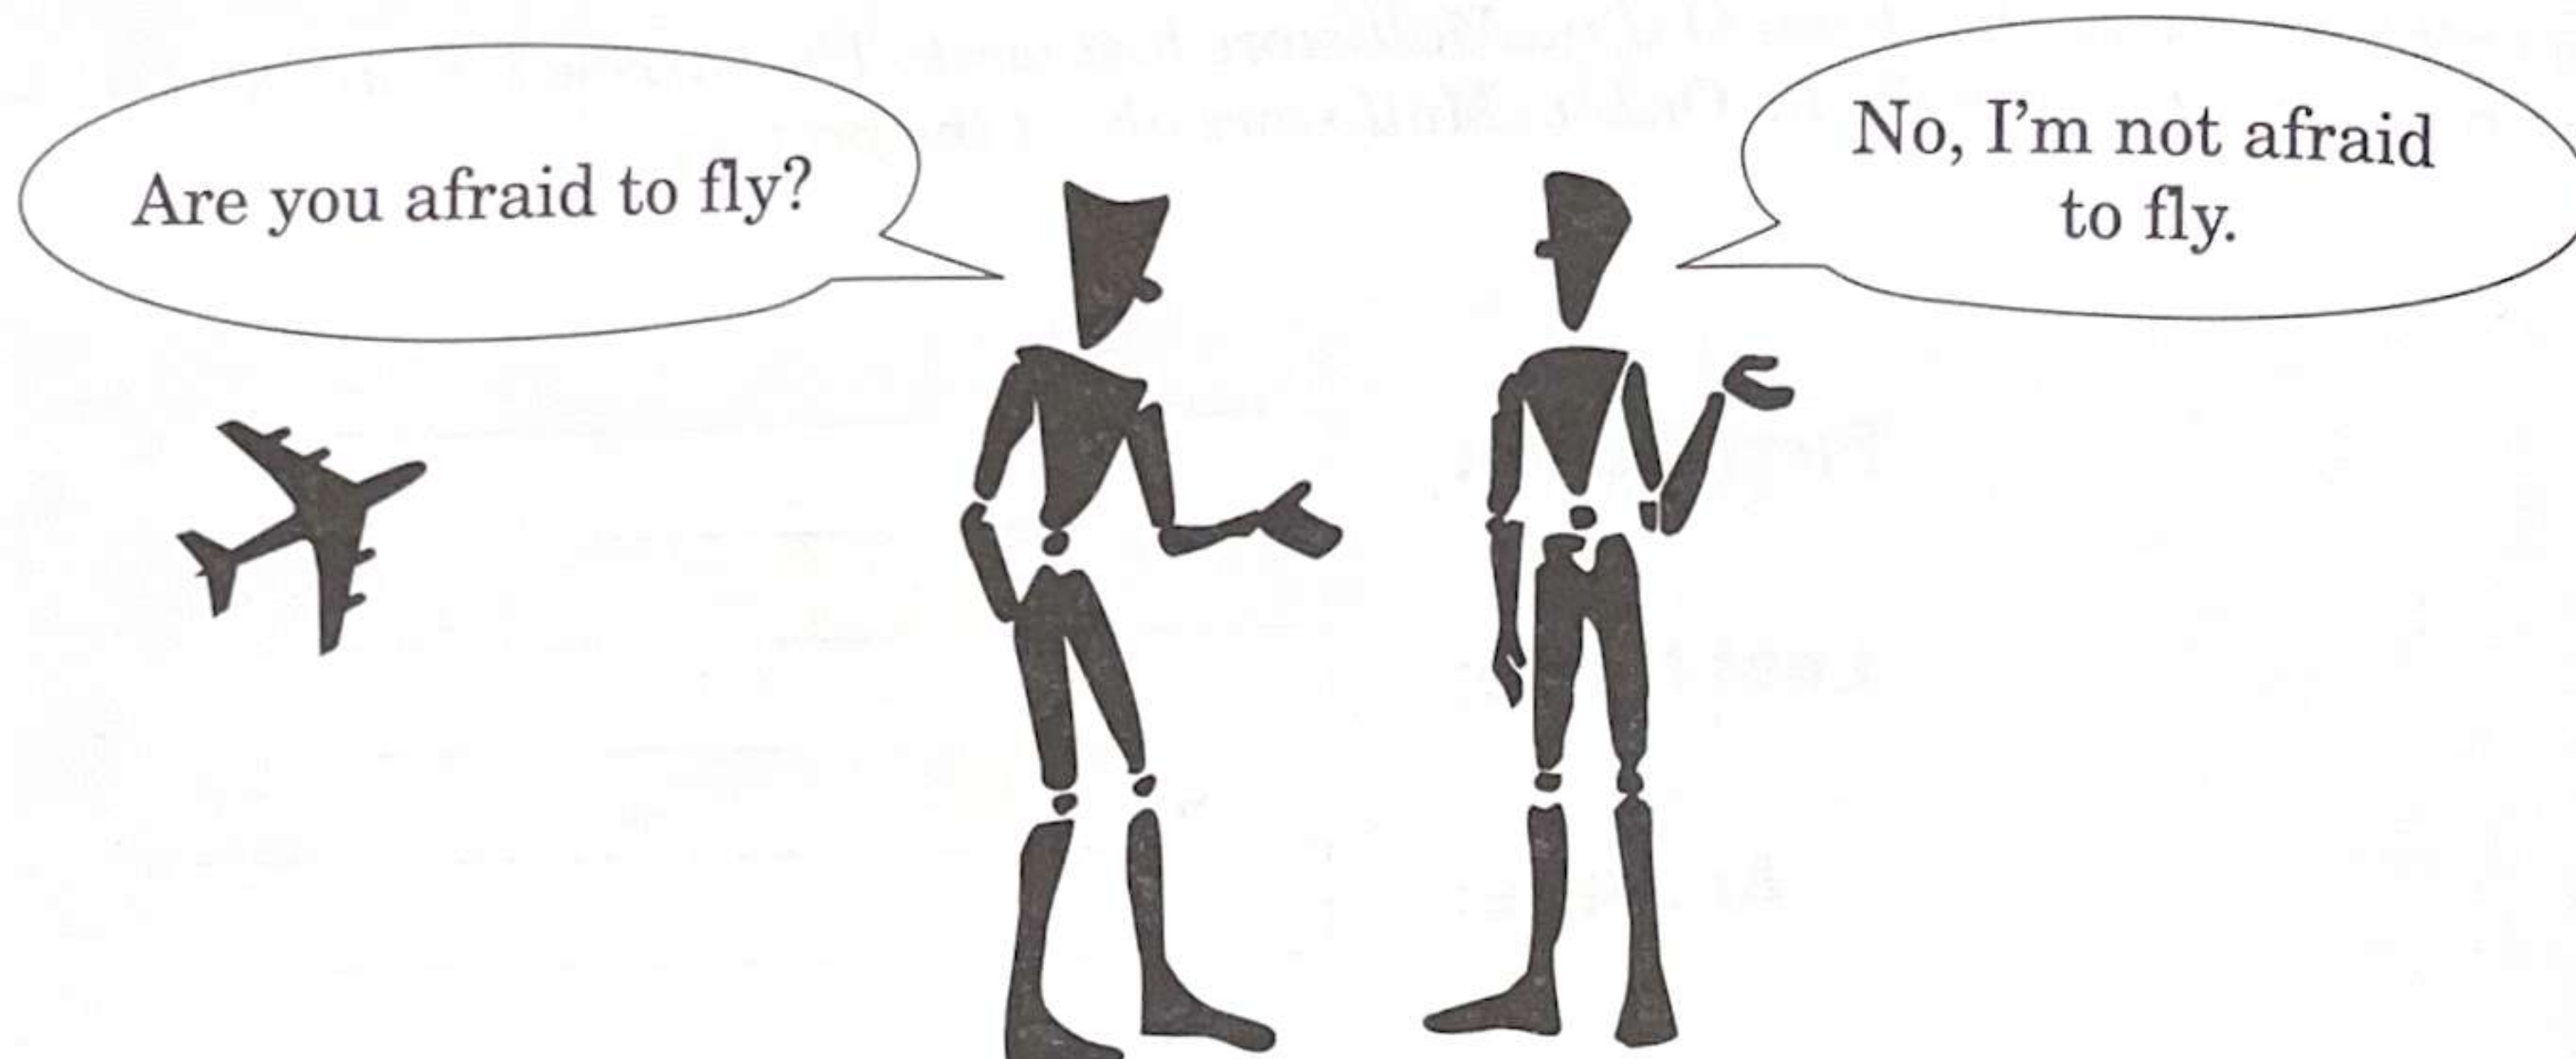

Please describe your problem:

Send

Clear Form

Grammar

Using an adjective + to-infinitive

Linda	is	ready	to go	home.
	isn't

❖ Use the to-infinitive after the adjectives in the box.

afraid	glad	happy	pleased	ready	sorry	upset
--------	------	-------	---------	-------	-------	-------

EXERCISE A Read the sentences.

Underline the adjectives and to-infinitives. Number 1 is an example.

1. We aren't ready to eat.
2. She's glad to meet Paul.
3. Harry is happy to have a new car.
4. Jane wasn't afraid to drive at night.
5. He will be upset to see his phone bill.
6. I was sorry to hear about your problem.
7. I will be happy to help you move next weekend.
8. They weren't pleased to work on Saturday.

EXERCISE B Read the two sentences. Then write one sentence.

Number 1 is an example.

1. We missed our flight. We were upset.

We were upset to miss our flight.

2. June found her wallet. She was glad.

3. Pvt Andrews will speak with Sgt Jordan. He's afraid.

4. He will leave the Army. He's sorry.

5. I'm here today. I'm pleased.

EXERCISE C Complete the sentences with a negative clause.

Use the words in parentheses (). Number 1 is an example.

1. We were glad to see Jim, but ...

(speak with Ron) we weren't glad to speak with Ron.

2. I'm happy to help him, but ...

(lend him money)

3. The children were ready to go in the house, but ...

(go to bed)

4. Lora is afraid to fly a helicopter, but ...

(drive a fast car)

5. Tom was pleased to find his wallet, but ...

(find it empty)

EXERCISE D Underline the adjective + to-infinitives in the dialog.

- Sally: Joan's going to Moscow next month on a business trip.
Judith: Is she happy to go?
Sally: Yes, but she's also sorry to leave her job here.
Judith: When will she be ready to leave?
Sally: She'll be ready to travel early next month.
Judith: Is she upset to leave her family?
Sally: No, she's going for only three months. She'll be very busy while she's there.
Judith: Will you be glad to see her when she gets back?
Sally: Of course. She's an important person here in our office.

EXERCISE E With a partner, unscramble the words to make questions.

1. Mexico / drive / is / to / afraid / John / to / ?

2. them / see / was / to / Mary / go / sorry / ?

3. were / to / see / who / they / happy / ?

4. they / were / to / what / upset / find out / ?

5. happy / a / new / to / base / will / be / to / Capt Reese / move / ?

6. movies / to / you / be / when / ready / the / go / to / will / ?

7. they / lose / were / the / soccer game / to / upset / ?

EXERCISE F Write answers to the questions.

Select a verb from A, choose a to-infinitive from B, and add words from C to make your answers. Number 1 is an example.

A	B	C
ready	to sleep	for them
upset	to be	the party
happy	to look	a letter from home
glad	to leave	my feelings
sorry	to get	in the dark
afraid	to hurt	at fault

1. Why is Ted having another drink?

He isn't ready to leave the party.

2. Why is the light on in the children's bedroom?

3. Why is Leslie smiling?

4. Why did she apologize to you?

5. What did George say about the car accident?

6. Will you help me find my keys?

EXERCISE GComplete the chart about yourself and two other students.

Complete the chart about yourself first. Then, interview two classmates. Complete the chart with their information.

QUESTIONNAIRE
	YOU		S1		S2
	yes	no	yes	no	yes	no
Are you afraid ... ? to sleep in the dark	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to swim in the deep ocean	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to go to the top of tall buildings	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
Are you happy ... ? to work on weekends	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to lend a friend $100	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to cook dinner for 20 people	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
Are you upset ... ? to lose $20	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to hear a lie	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
to cause an accident	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐

Listening

Choosing the topic and main idea

Listen to each paragraph. First, circle the letter of its topic. Then, circle the letter for the paragraph's main idea.

1. The topic of Paragraph 1 is _____.

- a. careless drivers
- b. seat belts
- c. car accidents

Its main idea is _____.

- a. Seat belts are important.
- b. Many people have had accidents.
- c. Careless drivers cause accidents.

2. The topic of Paragraph 2 is _____.

- a. early times
- b. the calendar
- c. the seasons

Its main idea is _____.

- a. The calendar has too many seasons.
- b. The calendar took long to make.
- c. People liked shorter years.

EXERCISE

Listen and write the topic and main idea.

Number 1 is an example.

1. Paragraph 1

Topic: the bus

Main idea: Many people take the bus to work.

2. Paragraph 2

Topic: _____

Main idea: _____

3. Paragraph 3

Topic: _____

Main idea: _____

Vocabulary

Making polite introductions

Major: Colonel Carter, let me introduce Captain Green to you. He's new here.
Colonel Carter, this is Captain Green.

Colonel: How do you do, Captain Green?

Captain: How do you do, sir?

Col Lee: John, have you met Major Fry?

Col Ray: No, I haven't.

Col Lee: I'd like to introduce him to you.
Colonel Ray, I'd like you to meet Major Fry.

Col Ray: It's good to know you,
Major Fry.

Maj Fry: It's a pleasure to meet you, sir.

Rules for military introductions

1. Speak to and look at the person of higher rank first.
2. Call the higher-ranking person by rank and last name, or by "sir" or "ma'am."
3. Tell the person of higher rank the lower-ranking person's rank and last name.
4. Always look the person of higher rank in the eye and shake his hand. Be polite.

EXERCISE A Listen and complete the rules for making polite introductions.

INTRODUCING MEN TO WOMEN

1. When you _____ adults, speak to the _____ first.
2. Look at _____ and tell _____ the _____ full name.
3. Then, tell the _____ the _____ full name.
4. The _____ is supposed to _____ the woman offer _____ his hand.

INTRODUCING CHILDREN TO ADULTS

1. Speak to and look at the _____ or _____ person first.
2. _____ the older person the younger person's _____.
3. Tell the _____ person the _____ title and last name.
4. During the _____, the younger person _____ speak and answer questions politely.

EXERCISE B Read the dialog with two partners.

Sue: Hi, Liz. I'd like you to meet June. She's my new neighbor.

Liz: Hello, June. It's nice to meet you.

June: It's a pleasure to meet you, too.

Liz: What do you think of our neighborhood?

June: I like it. Sue is introducing me to the neighbors. Everyone is so friendly.

Sue: Yes, that's why I like living here, too. Everybody knows each other. They are always ready to help out. I'm sure you'll receive lots of help while you're moving in.

June: That's great. I was afraid to move here alone, but now I see there's nothing to worry about.

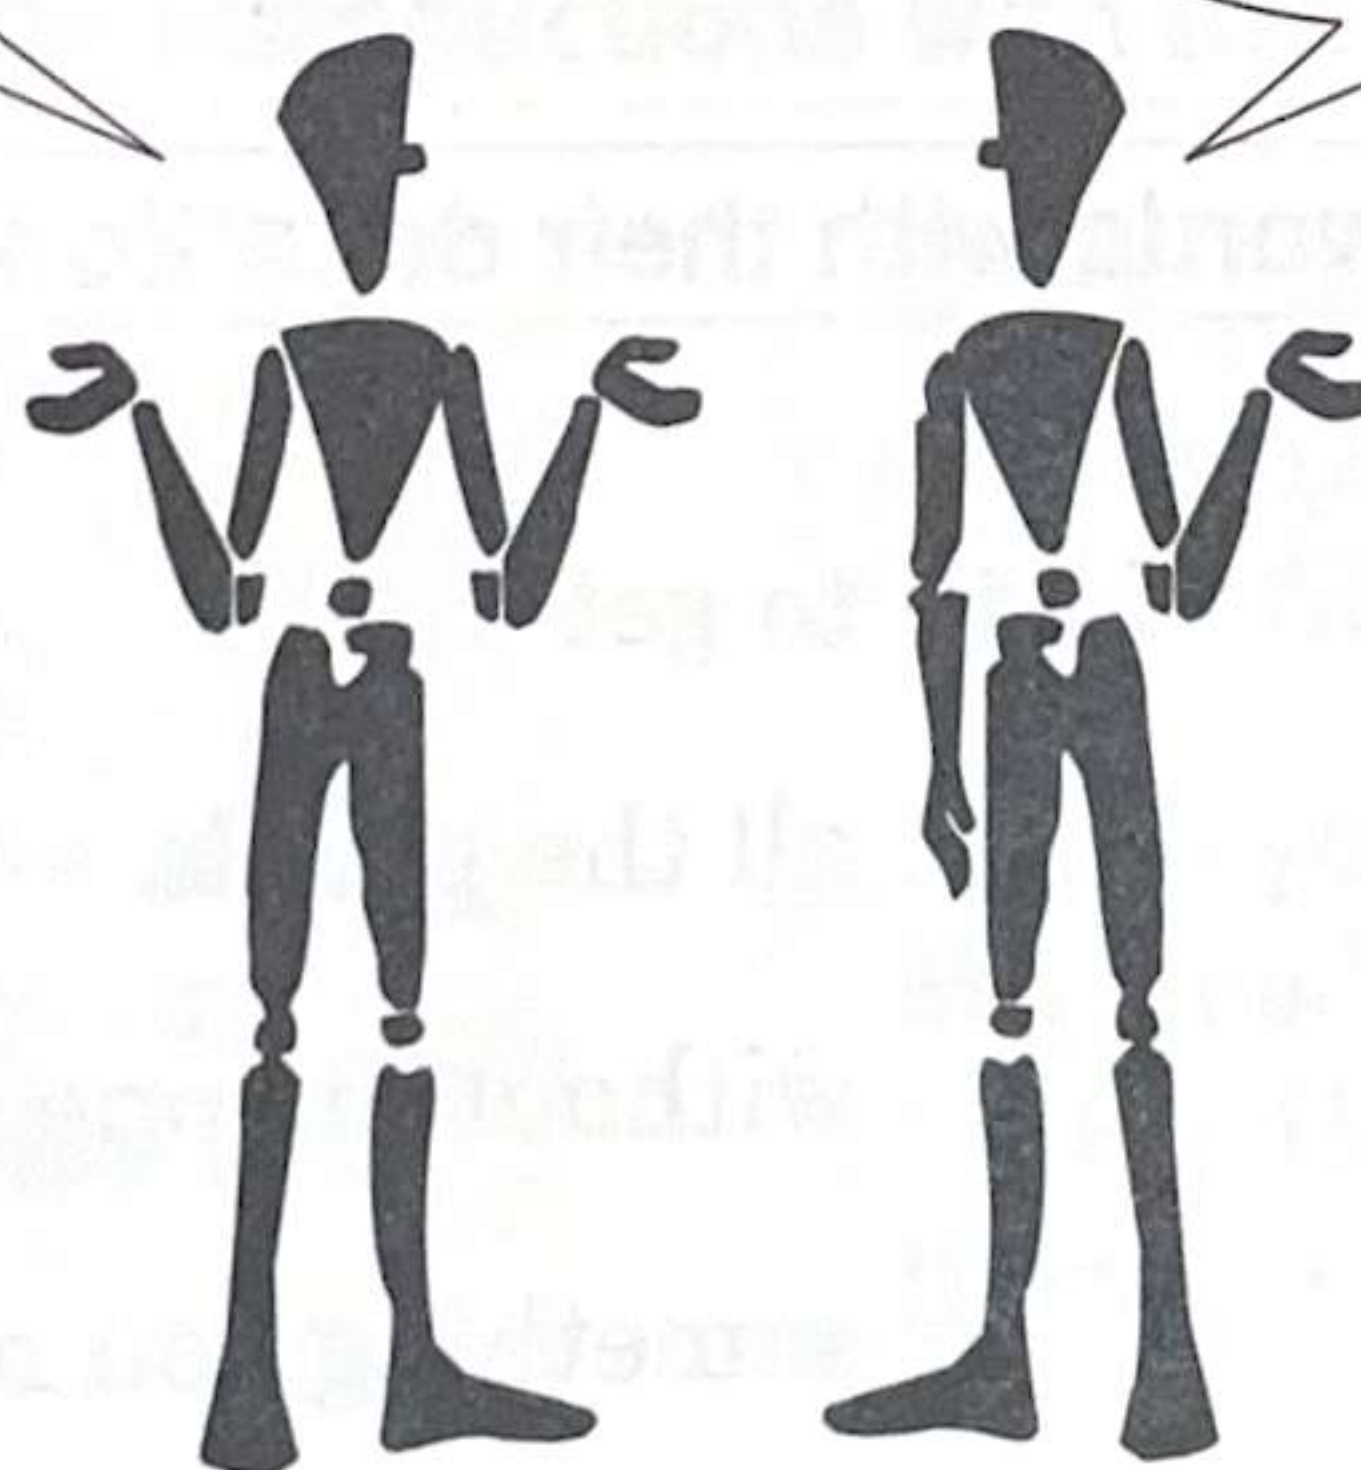

Liz: That's right. I need to go now, but first, let me write down my phone number for you. Call me any time you need help.

EXERCISE C Talk about introductions in your country.

With a partner, talk about how you introduce people in your country. Then, tell the class about introductions in your partner's country. You may write your notes on the lines below.

In my country, when a child meets an adult, the two don't shake hands.

Well, in my country, a child always shakes hands with the adult when they first meet.

EXERCISE D Use the words in the gray box to complete the sentences.

introduce write down adult politely let polite afraid everyone introductions shake

1. Sue doesn't like to fly. She's _____.
2. Jimmy's a very nice boy. He always helps us. He's very _____.
3. Their son is 24 years old. He's an _____.
4. When people meet for the first time, they usually _____ hands.
5. I don't know that woman. Can you _____ us?
6. The teacher _____ the students go home early.
7. All of our friends came to dinner. _____ had a good time.
8. Don't forget to _____ my address and phone number.
9. Mark and Lisa don't know each other. I'll make the _____.
10. Children are supposed to answer adults' questions _____.

EXERCISE E Match the words with their definitions.

- | | | |
|---------------|-----------------|---|
|  b  | 1. everybody | a. to get |
|   | 2. rule | b. all the people |
|   | 3. neighbors | c. without anyone else |
|   | 4. receive | d. something you must do |
|   | 5. neighborhood | e. the people who live near you |
|   | 6. alone | f. a small part of town where people live |

EXERCISE F Practice introductions. Each student takes a role, A, B, or C.

- | | | | |
|----|--|---|---|
| 1. | A Colonel Low,
Have you met
Captain King? | B How do you do,
Captain King? | C How do you do,
sir? |
| 2. | A Colonel Sands, let me introduce
Major Knight. | B Good to know you, Major
Knight. | C Thank you, sir. |
| 3. | A Mr. Hood, I'd like you to meet a very good friend of mine, Paula Oaks. | B Hello, Paula.
It's nice to meet you. | C It's nice to meet you, too, Mr.
Hood. |
| 4. | A Richard, I want you to meet my friend, Tom. | B Hello, Tom.
How are you? | C I'm fine, thanks.
It's a pleasure to meet you. |
| 5. | A Hello, Ann. Let me introduce Don Flint. Don, this is
Ann Grey. | B It's nice to meet you, Don. | C Thanks. It's good to meet
you, too. |

EXERCISE G Role-play the introductions with two partners.

- Captain Steve Ward
- Colonel Dan Brown
- Captain Sarah King

Captain King arrived today at her new base. She knows Captain Ward from her last base. She'll work for Colonel Brown.

- Ms. Penny Royal
- Ms. Denise Winters
- Mr. Allen Hood

Ms. Royal is the manager of a store. Mr. Hood works for her, and his friend, Denise, would like to work there, too.

- David Sharp
- Joe Woods
- Laura Fisher

David and Joe are old friends. They see Laura at the mall. David and Laura are friends from work.

- Sergeant Mark Ray
- Sergeant Bruce Potter
- Sergeant Tina Ash

Sergeants Ray and Ash are eating lunch in the mess hall. Sergeant Potter comes in. He knows Ash.

Grammar

Using a verb + gerund

Brian began using computers at work. He immediately enjoyed working with them. They helped him work faster and better. He thought of all kinds of ways they could be useful. Soon, he started thinking about buying a computer for his home.

First, he read a book about computers. After that, he began shopping for a computer. He didn't stop shopping until he found just the right one.

When Brian is at home, he likes sending e-mail to friends and family. He also likes receiving e-mail. Sometimes, he has 15 to 20 e-mails to read after he gets home from work. Brian usually doesn't go to bed until he finishes answering every e-mail.

Brian	enjoys	receiving	e-mail.
	doesn't enjoy

❖ Add -ing to a verb to make a gerund. Gerunds can be objects of these verbs:

begin enjoy finish like mind start stop

EXERCISE A Write the verbs and gerunds that are together in the text.

Number 1 is an example.

VERB + GERUND

1. began using
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

EXERCISE B Categorize the phrases.

Change the verbs to gerunds. Then, put the phrases in the best category for you.

smell fish	drive fast	run out of gas
sing loudly	tell secrets	ask questions
get a haircut	watch people	have big parties
eat sour things	tell a white lie	go to the dentist
go on vacation	clean the house	sleep on the floor
dance all night	swim in the dark	be in a traffic jam
eat in restaurants	study new subjects	drive without a seat belt

[illegible]

EXERCISE C Read the dialogs with a partner.

Dialog 1

Lt Ray: When will Captain Smith start studying Spanish?

Lt Lee: He'll start studying Spanish before he travels to Spain.

Dialog 2

Jim: Does Nick go to the gym every day after he finishes studying?

Becky: Yes, he always goes to the gym after he finishes studying.

Dialog 3

George: Do you enjoy playing football?

Mia: No, I don't like football.

George: What do you enjoy playing?

Mia: I enjoy playing soccer.

Dialog 4

Stan: Do you think they mind driving us to the airport?

Mary: No, I don't think they mind driving us there. They just have to be back home before 6 p.m.

EXERCISE D Answer the questions. Use the words in parentheses ().

Number 1 is an example.

- Does Ted enjoy sleeping late on Saturday? (yes)

Yes, Ted enjoys sleeping late on Saturday.

- Do you like helping in the kitchen? (no)

- When did they finish studying for the test? (at midnight)

- Does he mind helping us move? (no)

- How old was Lora when she began speaking English? (six)

EXERCISE E Write questions.

Number 1 is an example.

1. When did you start exercising?
I started exercising last month.
2. _____
Ruth stopped smoking one year ago.
3. _____
My friends enjoyed watching the movie.
4. _____
Jill likes studying English.
5. _____
We'll begin working tomorrow.

EXERCISE F Interview your partner. Check (✓) Y for yes and N for no.

Find out what your partner likes doing on the weekend. Find out two new things about your partner, and write them on the lines.

EXAMPLE: S1: Do you like sleeping late on Saturday?
S2: No, I don't like sleeping late on Saturday.

Y N

☐ ☐ sleeping late

☐ ☐ shopping

☐ ☐ studying for tests

☐ ☐ watching TV

☐ ☐ going dancing

☐ ☐ _____

Y N

☐ ☐ washing laundry

☐ ☐ writing letters

☐ ☐ taking trips

☐ ☐ working out at the gym

☐ ☐ working in the garden

☐ ☐ _____

Writing

Combining sentences to form a paragraph

First, match a numbered phrase with a lettered phrase to form a sentence. Then, use the sentences to write a paragraph.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| _____ 1. A credit card lets you | a. anything with a credit card. |
| _____ 2. You can buy almost | b. it can be a problem, too. |
| _____ 3. You can use it | c. you don't have the money to pay the bill. |
| _____ 4. It's easy to use, but | d. pay for things without money. |
| _____ 5. It's a problem when | e. in stores, restaurants, and on the Internet. |
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

EXERCISE A Use the same instructions as those for the exercise above.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| _____ 1. Some people use their | a. money than they have in the bank. |
| _____ 2. They forget that | b. they don't know what to do. |
| _____ 3. They spend more | c. they will have to pay their bill later. |
| _____ 4. When the bill comes, | d. learn how to manage their money better. |
| _____ 5. These people must | e. credit cards every day. |
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____